6. COMMITTEE REPORTS/RECOMMENDATIONS
   A. Investment Monitoring Group Committee Presentation by Committee Chairman, Sheila Morgan-Johnson
      i. Regular Report of December 18, 2018
      ii. Confidential Report of December 18, 2018 (For Information Only)
      iii. Regular Report of January 15, 2019
           a. Recommendation to Approve the Securities Lending – Required Adherence to Resolution Stay-Consent Amendment, subject to legal review

At its January 15, 2019 meeting the Investment Monitoring Group (IMG) discussed changes required to agreements governing transactions with certain securities lending borrowers to comply with regulatory requirements.

Following the financial crisis, jurisdictions developed special resolution regimes (“SRRs”) to ensure financial institutions can continue to trade and meet obligations to counterparties even after getting into financial difficulties. A key feature is the temporary suspension of a counterparty’s termination and default rights which is usually up to two business days. This gives regulators time to implement an efficient resolution of a failing financial institution and to allow an orderly unwinding of its trading positions to avoid defaults which would have an adverse impact on financial stability. By authorizing Northern Trust to make the changes, the ERS will be able to lend securities to borrowers located in jurisdictions that are subject to resolution regimes (such as US, UK, Germany and Japan). There is minimal risk as there would need to be another 2008/2009 -level crisis. The new regulations are effective July 1, 2019; however, Northern Trust requires clients execute a Consent Amendment by March 1, 2019. The IMG recommends the Board approve the Securities Lending- Required Adherence to Resolution Stay- Consent Amendment, as recommended by Wilshire Associates, subject to legal review. The consent amendment was reviewed by legal counsel.

ACTIONS: MS. BENNETT made the motion, seconded by MS. WALSH to Approve the Securities Lending – Required Adherence to Resolution Stay-Consent Amendment. The motion PASSED unanimously (8-0). (Motion #19-7)
